

NEW HEART BEAT DEVOTIONS

Guardian Angels

During one bitter cold January night in 2002, my wife and I heard the fire station siren. A few seconds later, we received a phone call from our son. He said he had slid on the ice and hit a telephone pole and his car is now up in flames. Rushing to the scene, we saw the flames and the fire trucks but we were held back from seeing him. He was on the other side of the downed wires in the ambulance. With the wind blowing and the snow whipping, we finally saw our son in our headlights. He was OK but he only had on a t-shirt, shorts and sneakers.

Our son explained, that he was returning from the gym and was going only 20 M.P.H.. He slid on the black ice, hit the pole, and did a complete turn. He saw the flames on the dash, grabbing nothing he jumped out of the car and found a house with a phone. The fire got so hot that it had melted the seats, steering wheel, and keys. Miraculously, the medical team found not even a scratch nor the smell of smoke on our son. The only thing recoverable from the charcoaled car was his slightly harmed day timer notebook and his melted keys.

Even now, 15 years later, looking at the recently discovered pictures, keys and the notebook from the fire, we are still thankful for his guardian angels that day. How do we know that there is a God? It is through the many miraculous happenings like this. Do you have guardian angels?
