

NEW HEART BEAT DEVOTIONS

“Your final destination is booked. Details are listed in the Good Book.”

Where is Your Reservation?

Before we had a computer, my wife and I made a reservation at George Washington Motor Lodge, King of Prussia. Upon arriving, the first thing I remember was everything looked run down. You could see the pool was not used for a long time. When we got to the room, ceiling paint was falling, there were bugs, it smelled, the lamp was knocked over and the beds were dirty. Susan said, “No way are we staying here with our two young boys.” I remember another time; we had a reservation at a hotel which was in a bad section of Hartford, CT. I was afraid to leave the family in the car while I was canceling the reservation. There were rough people in the parking lot and many police cars with flashing lights in the next block. I am sure you can relate to places like these.

Nowadays, when looking to make a reservation, we look on the internet for the best location, price, service, amenities, rating and reviews. There are many independent websites to choose from: Orbitz, Expedia, Priceline, Hotels.com, TripAdvisor, Kayak, Travelocity, Hotwire, Agoda, Trivago, AAA, Yahoo Travel, HomeAway, TravelZoo, Booking.com, Biator, AirBnB, Travelclick, LonelyPlanet.

Now, let me tell you about a place that is out of this world. Its star rating is infinite. The weather is beautiful every day. The sights and sounds are beyond human words. Your mansion was personally prepared by the owner. All the staff are perfect angels. All your worries are wiped away. No need for money because the streets are made of gold. The write-ups about it describe it as heavenly. You will want to spend an eternity there. Rev 21:1-27, Rev 22:1-7, John 14:2-3

But there is another place that can only be described as pure hell. There is evil, filth, loud noises, and the lake that you swim in is hotter than Hades. There will be no rest or comfort and everyone there will torment you like demons. The rating on that place is far below human description. The sad part is that those who go there will never return. Rev 20:15, Luke 16:22-31

None of the travel websites will tell you about these two destinations even though everyone will be going to one of them. If you do not change your reservation soon, you will have a one way ticket to the wrong place. “Whosoever calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.” Rom 10:13

Make that call today while you still can be assured of the right reservation. It is a free offer.

You will never want to leave.
